NOTES FROM DEB

Every Easter season I find myself drawn to our readings from the Acts of the Apostles, the stories of the very infancy of the Church. In our first reading for today, Paul and Barnabas are working to proclaim the Good News, making disciples, and encouraging believers in all their travels. Despite enduring persecution, they pressed on, reminding their listeners that discipleship often comes through trials.

One key lesson from this passage is the importance of strengthening one another in faith. Paul and Barnabas did not merely share the Gospel and move on—they returned to encourage and fortify new believers. Their journey underscores the necessity of discipleship and community support.

This weekend nine of our children will receive the Eucharist for the first time. In a couple of weeks, nine of our young folks will receive the sacrament of confirmation. All these young folks have been encouraged, supported, and strengthened in their faith by their families, sponsors, catechists, and this faith community. That is truly our discipleship in action.

May we continue to support one another, young and old, as we journey in faith.

Your shepherd,
Deb Steppe

VIRTUE OF THE WEEK

Perseverance

Perseverance is the will to carry on. Once we discern our true direction, we stay the course for however long it takes, regardless of obstacles that arise. We patiently pursue our goals, remaining steadfast and focused. We persist with a task until it is completed.

People can trust us to finish what we start. We are determined to succeed

In the First Reading, the disciples were strengthened to persevere in faith. In the Gospel, Jesus adds a new commandment, that they love one another as He has loved them. Think about what that meant to them? Jesus died for them and us! How can we persevere to love God and one another?

WORSHIP

Congratulations to all of you who are celebrating your first Eucharist!

It takes many grains of wheat to make this bread.

It is one yet many.

To live as a community we must be one though many.

And so in the breaking and sharing

we recognize the presence of the Lord Jesus making us one.

John Mossi

Not long ago, Fr. Bill asked us to think of a word that we associate with the Eucharist. Some of the responses were: community, spiritual food, thanksgiving, etc.

But no one mentioned the word “service.”

At the Last Supper, Jesus said to his disciples: “Do this in memory of me.” So what is it that we are supposed to remember about Jesus? His sacrifice? His miracles? His compassion and mercy toward others? If we look closely, we may discover that no matter what we remember most about or attribute to Jesus, it was done in service to others. His compassion and mercy toward those who were on the margins of society, who were shunned because of their livelihood, their gender, their afflictions, etc. served to restore their sense of dignity and worth. In fact, the whole of Jesus’ life was one of service, which he strongly modeled when he, their spiritual leader, washed the feet of his disciples.

Perhaps when we come forward to receive the Bread of Life, we might remember that we are each a grain of wheat, a part of one body, in service to one another, to create the “one bread” that is God’s kin-dom.

Coming Forth: A Response in Faith

During Lent and the recent Tridium, "Come forth" was a frequent invitation. "Come forth..." to commit to repentance and continuing conversion. To pray. To meditate on our Lenten journey of hope through song and Scripture. To welcome Jesus on Passion Sunday. To wash or have our feet washed. To write a word in sand of surrender, request, regret, or confession—and then erase it. To reverence the cross. To share in the Eucharist. To bless ourselves with baptismal water. To prepare, preside, serve as sacristan or acolyte, cantor, sing, play instruments, lector, dance, usher, carry gifts to the altar, count the donations, serve through communication, coordinate and facilitate audiovisuals, or minister during Communion. To organize and serve refreshments to celebrate Easter with our friends and new friends. To clean up after the joyful Vigil.

Come forth... you saints, sinners, joyful, hurting, brisk walking slow moving, without assistance, with assistance, energetic, bogged down, on top of it all, struggling, excellent of voice, off-key, open, hard-to-reach, well-to-do, barely making ends meet, young, elders, faith-filled, and doubting.

This "Unsung Disciples" is about we disciples who make up the Our Lady of Lourdes community. We are many voices. We are many genders, many ages, many races, and cultures. We have many gifts and generously share many talents. We regularly gather in love to celebrate our beliefs and put them into action. We are "a faith community, striving to be the hands and feet of Christ in our neighborhoods, our homes, our workplaces, and beyond." We have heard the call to "come forth" and we have responded in faith. May God continue to bless us.
